WAYS TO HELP US HELP THEM.....

QUARTER AUCTIONS....Karyn Brooks (Karyn's Events.com) has conducted fundraising and FUN monthly events for SPAY LEE- the fourth Thursday evening 6-8:30 PM (usually - except for Thanksgiving and Christmas). They've been at the Cypress Lake Presbyterian Church Community Hall, Cypress Lakes Drive and Overlook Drive. Quarter auctions raise money for the charitable group- guests buy bid paddles ($3 or 2 for $5) that they use to bid (by quarters usually 2 or 3 depending on the bid item) for fun items donated by the vendors or by the charity. OH- AND ... if you bring a pet related item- (paper towels, Friskies cat food cans, DAWN detergent, bleach) you'll get a coupon for each .50 cents of value approximately, for a gift drawing. Plus, there's a 50-50 raffle and great food that can be purchased. The date and location may change later so you are welcome to call 239 939 3680.

WOWauctionsite.com- does charitable fundraising (and private individual participants) via online auctions. This replaces yard sales, and supporters can donate items (You get a tax form) to benefit the charity. Auctions run about 2 weeks and there are two a month. The final bids take place by 7 PM on Wednesdays. They also donate a % of their net proceeds to participating charities depending on the % of "votes" generated when accessing the website, click on Non-Profits at the website top, charities are listed on the right side- select SPAY LEE and "VOTE"... you can do this every day Check out the great buys on the auction site too.....

PRESIDEN'S MESSAGE

I absolutely hate HATE HATE asking our volunteers, members, supporters for HELP!!!

But sometimes it's a necessity to keep what & who we worked for alive and well. Most animal welfarists and rescues need financial help to provide for the physical and mental needs of the dogs and cats (and even birds, horses, and small animals) in the care of those rescues.

When serving animals, there is always a critical need for veterinary services,. Without the kindness of veterinarians who help rescues with large discounts we could not provide proper medical assistance. Sometimes there is a need for financial help for a family pet with a critical issue for which we have provided what we call "outreach" assistance to get that medical and sometimes life-saving treatment.

In these times, it's necessary for rescues to carry "INSURANCE"....especially if they place animals for adoption. There is "General Liability". "Director and Officer Insurance", "Volunteer Accident Insurance", "Employer Comp"Insurance.... all necessary for the protection of the public or the stores and/or agencies that permit the rescues to "do business" on their property. Our costs this year are over $5,000 just for insurances.

We provide quality pet food, all necesary medications, heartworm and flea protection and provide housing for 70 dogs and cats (varies) although some are here "for life" mostly due to age.

For years, Carolyn Kimbrell and I did the physical animal care. There are very few able to volunteer out here in Buckingham, and unfortunately I'm now unable to physically do what I was able to manage to do some years ago. We've had to hire part time employees which is one of our major expenditures. But the animals REQUIRE caretakers.

Our monthly expenses average $12,000. If you can help in any amount, we (& the dogs and cats) will "live to see another day " and really, really appreciate your kindness. If you are already helping, THANK YOU. If you'd like to help, www.spay-lee.com has a "DONATE" PayPal button, so does our Facebook site....SPAY-LEEAnimalWelfare, or mail - P.O.Box 6577, Ft Myers, Fl 33911

Financial summary through July 2015.....

Bunny World Foundation RESCUE EXPLAINED.....

The neglect changes you. The abuse hardens you. The suffering breaks you. The ignorance angers you. The indifference disturbs you. The injustice destroys you. On a daily basis...your faith will be tested. Your soul will be altered. On a weekly basis...you'll question yourself. You'll question your strength. You'll question the world. On a monthly basis...you'll fall down You'll get up. You'll go on... On a yearly basis...you'll look back... You'll see faces... You couldn't save them. You'll learn to mourn. To grieve. To sob. You'll learn to trust a little less. To do a little more. To fight a little harder. You'll learn to try.

Your heart will be wounded.... To hope. To pray. You'll learn to fail. To succeed To accept.

You'll learn when to hold on. When to give up. When to let go. You'll learn who you are. What you stand for. Why that matters.

Then... at times... you'll forget why you matter. You'll question what you're doing.

You'll wonder if it's worth

But...here's the good news...

When you forget... When you question... When you wonder... All you have to do... Is take a look around... And you'll see them. You'll see their faces. You'll see their smiles. You'll feel their love. In their eyes, you'll see their journeys... You'll remember their beginnings... You'll know how far they've come...

You'll remember when they didn't know you... When they didn't trust vou...

When they'd given up. You'll remember how you healed them... How you loved them... How they loved you, too. And as you look back... You'll want to move forward...

For them... and because of them.

In your darkest hours, you'll look around...

To find the differences made...the hope given...

and the lives saved... Because you existed.

In those moments, when you look into their eyes... Every doubt will be erased. Every question will be answered. Every worry will subside. Because in that instant... in each of your hearts... You both share the very same thought: "Every bit of pain was worth it... for this moment here with you." And honestly...no matter what else happens... Those moments hold all the strength you need...

To keep going. Rescue is pain. Rescue is joy. Rescue is worth it... because they are worth it.

And that's the honest truth. ~ Ashley Owen Hill

This is why we do what we do...and what YOU do to make it possible...to make a difference - there is a Saving a dog will not make a difference to the world. But it means the world to that dog (or cat or whoever). Sometimes what we do gives the animal the rest of his/her life in a loving family. Sometimes it means letting the animal live in a shelter -safe and well fed but not in that loving family. Sometimes it's holding that animal while sending him/ her to the Rainbow Bridge. saving a lifetime of pain. This is rescue.

For everyone I've loved.... 2 on the floor (Tom and Tim), 4 on the floor (dogs and cats) and 2 on the perch (the birds). ...all who've crossed the Rainbow Bridge, know that I love and miss you every day. by Sunny Dowling... and her friends at SPAY LEE and from Tammy Ayer - a Memorial for B.C. aka "PRINCESS" kitty and a message from "PETE" from the Rainbow Bridge a little feral mama whose story is on https://www.facebook.com/peteandherkittens

HONORING the bond between Vic Argento and "Princess"- this wonderful dobe (alumnus of SPAY LEE) who helped Vic get through some really hard times

by Nita and Carson Spitler

It would be great to be able to do photos.. but that can't be helped right now- so we will just summarize some of our happenings...

A batch of feral babies were found behind a Walmart- under a tarp...real little ones. We don't usually take kittens- it is so difficult to place them before they become cats and our cost is almost $140 per kitten to have totally vetted ... people don't want to pay a $50 adoption fee. Kate Whittington took on the handfeeding and they are gorgeous 4 month olds.... We still have 3....

In April we took in 14 small dogs from a situation in Cape Coral- and a few were very old. The oldest was "Don" a little chihuahua with a mouthful of rotten teeth and a decayed lower jaw. We had the teeth removed and the jaw stayed (thought it would fracture off actually) and this little guy still managed to eat kibble by tossing a piece in the air and gumming it. "Don" was adopted in June by a family full of rescued dogs. He's learned to use a doggie door, and doing great.

Five years ago we took in "Chewy" who was supposed to be 3 years old and 3.5 lbs. Well he was 3.5 lbs- and guessed to be between 3 and 13 years old. He was also starving and apparently was only fed every few days at night. He lived in my bathtub for 5 years at night and would only eat in the tub when he was alone. A lovely lady from Naples came to meet Missy -another chihuahua who had undergone patellar surgery. She happened to see Chooch's blanket move (he spent his days in my kitchen in his dog bed under a blanket) and on hearing his story- adopted him, too....He has a whole new life ahead of him....no matter how old he is.

"Pierre" was among the Cape Coral Crew - an old poodle who also needed all his teeth removed. He didn't know they were gone and would go into attack mode when he was irritated- and even though we all knew there were no teeth- we still jumped back when he was doing his thing.

But this dog LOVED Lisa. Any time he saw her, he'd bounce up and down wagging his rear. He now lives with Lisa- still has some of that attitude, but it doesn't faze Lisa.

"OTTO", the red doberman, has been with us 19 months- his demodex and infections made him a bloody mess. Dr.Ernie and MyPetsVet in Lehigh has worked diligently to overcome this disaster, and FINALLY, Otto is looking good. He's now off all medications and antibiotics and hopefully his immune system will prevent a recurrence. If he's cleared for adoption, we will all be thrilled....especially Lisa who has been his chauffeur taking him back and forth to Dr.Ernie's.
